OBJECTIVES

7TH INFANTRY REGIMENT
ASSOCIATION

1. To create and perpetuate a viable and cohesive national organization for the purpose of enjoying the camaraderie and unique membership, and in unison, voice concern for the protection of our cherished American ideals and our individual way of life.

2. To support the military policy that maintains reasonable but strong nuclear and conventional, combat-ready regular and reserve component forces, able to provide adequate national security for our nation and its people.

3. To foster the development of good citizenship, patriotism, and leadership in our American youth, the future of our nation.

4. To insure that posterity is constantly reminded of those instances of service, sacrifice, and dedication to the preservation of our nation's liberty and freedom by celebrating those dates that recall the sacrifices made by the Armed Forces of the United States, and especially the 7th Infantry Regiment and its component units.

5. To encourage and achieve the mutual benefit and support resulting from a close and cooperative alliance between the Association and the active units of the 7th Infantry Regiment in the United States Army.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

by Greg Cullison, Association President

Greetings to all Cottonbalers! As I write this, the Polar Vortex and extreme cold weather across the country is the lead story on the network news. I am looking out my window at a beautiful snowfall here in Germany, but the winter days are so short here that the sun will only half-heartedly rise this morning. I am looking forward to the spring when the days get longer and the weather turns sunny and warm. Spring will also bring us the next Cottonbaler Reunion in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

President Greg Cullison

Tennessee River—after a scenic sightseeing cruise down the river on the Southern Belle Riverboat. During dinner, we will have the opportunity to hear an update on our active duty Cottonbalers from LTC Robert Stanton, current 2/7 Infantry Battalion Commander at Fort Stewart. We will also hear remarks from our keynote speaker, local historian Sam D. Elliott, who will enlighten us with some fascinating facts about Chattanooga during the Civil War. This is sure to be one of our most memorable reunion dinners.

I hope you are planning to join us as we celebrate our common bond of service as Cottonbalers, all having served in the most highly decorated infantry regiment in the United States Army. It always gives me great pride to talk about my time in the Army, and the fact that I was a Cottonbaler. I am sure you feel the same way, since you are reading this newsletter as a member of our 7th Infantry Regiment Association.

As I wrote in the last issue of The Cottonbaler, the Chattanooga reunion will be one of the best we have ever planned, and you will want to be there. We will be touring battlefields where two of the most momentous battles of the Civil War took place—Chickamauga and Chattanooga. These battles are among the many for which our regiment was awarded battle streamers, as you can see on the back cover of this newsletter. You will hear some surprising facts from National Park Service rangers about the Cottonbalers while we are on the tour!

In addition, our banquet will take place aboard a dockside historic riverboat on the shore of the

I have been hearing from some old buddies on Facebook, and there is a buzz about the reunion from some Cottonbalers who have not previously attended our reunions. That is great—all are welcome, and the more the merrier. I am reaching out to anyone I can locate, and I urge you to do the same.

See our reunion section in this issue or go to the Cottonbaler website for more details on the 7th Infantry Regiment Association 30th reunion schedule, activities and registration materials. Please note the cutoff dates for hotel rooms at reunion rates is 16 April 2019 and registration deadline for reunion events is 30 April 2019, so the time is now. We need your help to contact every Cottonbaler you know and invite them to what promises to be our best reunion ever!

Enjoy the rest of your winter, and be safe out there. Spring is on its way...see you in Chattanooga!

VOLENS ET POTENS

Greg Cullison, President

IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

Greetings to all the members of the 7th Infantry Regiment Association Cottonbalers. I hope that all of you and your loved ones are all doing well.

The upcoming reunion in Chattanooga, May 16-19, 2019, will be a great time for catching up with Cottonbalers we have not seen or heard from for some time, reuniting with Cottonbalers that are just joining the 7th Infantry Regiment Association or maybe attending a reunion for the first time, swapping war stories and enjoying each other's company.

It will also be a time for us to catch up on some Association housekeeping business. As you know we have been without an Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment (HSGMOR) since we lost Gene Owen. I am sorry to report that our Honorary Colonel of the Regiment (HCOR), LTG John M. LeMoyne, USA (Ret) has announced that he will be retiring his appointment. Both Gene and General LeMoyne have served the 7th Infantry Regiment with distinction and honor for many years. Their dedicated service to the Regiment while on active duty and since, has been an inspiration to all members of the Regiment and the Association alike.

We will begin the nomination process to elect a new HSGMOR and HCOR with this newsletter and will elect a new HSGMOR and HCOR during the business meeting on Saturday, 18 May 2019 in Chattanooga.

The criteria for Honorary Colonel of the Regiment (HCOR) is a distinguished retired commissioned officer in the rank of lieutenant colonel or above, (the Executive Officer of the Regimental Enhancement Program has confirmed the approval of a waiver for the rank of lieutenant colonel), with former service in a unit in the regiment. The initial appointment is for 3 years, with an additional 3 years if requested. The duties of the HCOR are ceremonial and do not conflict with the chain of command. The HCOR should be able to attend and participate in regimental functions when invited.

Immediate Past President

The criteria for Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment (HSGMOR) is a distinguished retired non-commissioned officer in the rank of sergeant first class or above, with former service in a unit in the regiment. The initial appointment is for 3 years, with an additional 3 years if requested. The duties of the HSGMOR are ceremonial and do not conflict with the chain of command. The HSGMOR should be able to attend and participate in regimental functions when invited.

Nominations should be submitted to the 7th Infantry Regiment Association Secretary, Father Phil by e-mail at XUANLOC@aol.com, or mail to Father Phillip G. Salois, M.S., 16 Sharon Parkway, North Smithfield, RI 02896, or made at the reunion.

Now it's time for all Cottonbalers young and old, those that have never been to a Cottonbaler Reunion and those that have never missed one to muster in Chattanooga, May 16-19, 2019.

I want to challenge every Cottonbaler to get to the reunion and bring another Cottonbaler By God, another Damn Fine Soldier with you. See you in Chattanooga!

Godspeed!

EDITOR'S NOTES....Help Needed!

by David Spanburg

As the reunion draws nearer and we vote for Association officers and board members, it's vital for the survival of the Association for everyone to step forward and volunteer. I know that you learned early in your military life to never volunteer for anything. Well that's still true, except for here and now. The Association needs your help. I need your help. I'm looking for a few people who would like to become more involved with the Association. No real experience needed (I certainly didn't have any when I started...).

We're always, always looking for new people to step up and help out. The best way: volunteer to be a Board Member. The Board meets at the reunion and then does everything else either via email or conference calls. Mostly emails. Just let one of the officers or board members know you're willing to help.

We are also always looking for people to help out at the Reunions. We need someone who could scout out possible hotels and activities at future Reunion sites to helping keep the Hospitality Suite stocked with food and drinks.

In addition, I'm looking for replacements for the Cottonbaler Newsletter editor and the Cottonbalers.com web master. I'm not planning on going anywhere any time soon, but none of us is getting any younger.

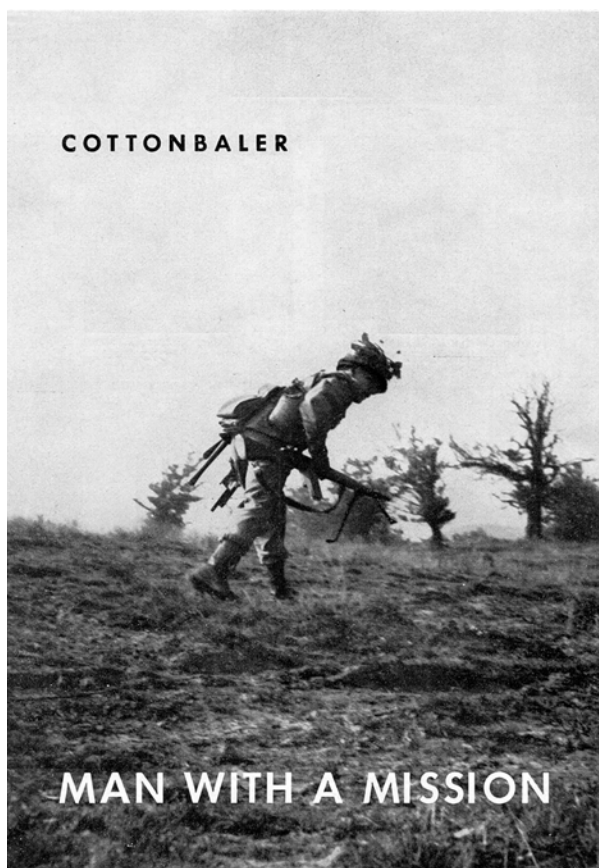

For the Editor position, you'll mainly be responsible for gathering the various pieces/columns from the Association Officers and the Commander of 2-7 IN. You'll need to review the article and do some basic editing. You then hand off the articles to a very talented and all-around wonderful person, Elizabeth, for her to put it all together. If anyone is interested but doesn't feel they are ready to jump in completely, you can be a Jr Editor for awhile. That is how I got started.

For the webmaster – I need someone who knows the newer standards and designs. The existing site is dated and is not a Responsive-Design. I know what it is, but I don't have the knowledge on how to implement that. The site needs a redesign and updating. If you just want to help with the redesign and know something about Responsive-Design and HTML coding, please contact me.

So, get involved. Once you do, you'll enjoy it. This is a great Association and that is because of the people involved. We can only keep it great if you're willing to step up and lend us a hand.

"Cottonbaler" 2nd Battalion COMMANDER'S COMMENTS...

LTC Robert C. Stanton USA, CDR

From Able 6, LTC Robert C. Stanton Jr.: Returning from holiday block leave the Soldiers of 2-7 Infantry were called on once again to showcase the 3rd Infantry Division and the 1st Armor Brigade Combat Team (ABCT). In January and February, the Cottonbalers received the Secretary of the Army (SECARMY), began fielding the Army's new Joint Light Tactical Vehicle (JLTV), started planning for a multi-brigade training event, and celebrated all of the Battalion's accomplishments at the Battalion's Military Ball.

Mark Esper, the incumbent SECARMY, toured the BN's motor pool and met with Soldiers and their families on January 11th. The reason for the SECARMY's visit was to continue his tour of all Army Divisions in order to better familiarize himself with the force. Events that Mr. Esper hosted were town hall meetings with Soldiers and Leaders to discuss current problem sets the army faces, a Family Readiness Group luncheon, and other discussions about Army readiness. Soldiers and spouses were awarded coins from the SECARMY for their performance and contributions during his visit.

The Cottonbalers are a part of the 1st Brigade (BDE) in the Army to receive the new JLTV vehicles. The JLTV will replace the Battalion's current fleet of High Mobility Multipurpose

LTC Robert C. Stanton (L) and CSM Christopher J. Williams

Wheeled Vehicles (HMMWV) while providing significant modernization. The new vehicles will provide our Soldiers with higher performance, greater payload capabilities, and increased battlefield networking. The BN will continue new equipment training for this platform with the manufacturer, Oshkosh Defense, before utilizing these vehicles in a March training event.

In March, the Soldiers of 2-7 Infantry will serve as the opposing force for 2nd BDE, 3ID as they continue to prepare for upcoming National Training Center rotations. The Battalion will face various missions ranging from conducting a defense to executing an attack against overwhelming odds. This training event gives us the opportunity to take our Abrams Tanks and Bradley Infantry Fighting Vehicles into the field alongside our new JLTVs while testing our mission command and logistical systems.

On January 19th, the Battalion hosted the Cottonbaler Ball at the Savannah Marriot Riverfront. Over 500 Soldiers and their guests enjoyed a night of celebrating the Battalion's recent redeployment and accomplishments. Door prizes were awarded to lucky Soldiers, the grog was filled to its brim, and esprit de corps was at an all-time high. In place of a guest speaker, the Battalion produced a video showcasing the 7th Infantry Regiment's remarkable history from 1814-2018. This video is available to you for viewing and download at the following link until March 7th: <https://vimeo.com/311353384/b337888cac>.

On behalf of the Soldiers of the 2nd battalion, 7th Infantry Regiment I would like to commend all prior serving members of this great organization and extend a thank you for all of your continued support. Our Soldiers continue to raise the bar in all endeavors and impress every individual and organization they interact with.

My dear Cottonbalers: Spring is nigh upon us and warmer weather is indeed welcomed especially after the brutal cold weather that our brothers in the mid-west suffered through with the polar vortex that was unleashed upon us.

As your secretary, my job is to be a “hound dog” and that means I must hound all of my brothers who are delinquent in sending in their dues for the 2018-2019 year! You know who you are so please submit to me your annual dues in the amount of $20.00. Please NOTE that your 2018-2019 membership expires on May 31, 2019. The 2019-2020 dues become effective on June 1, 2019. So, if you find yourself in arrears, I will be happy to receive your check for $40.00 which will get you caught up and covered until May 31, 2020. Such a deal is that!

You can also consider a Life Membership and the older you get the less expensive it becomes. We still have 85 members who have not submitted their dues. So please check your records send in your dues payable to 7th Infantry Regiment Association to me at:

Father Philip G. Salois, M.S., Secretary
16 Sharon Parkway
North Smithfield, Rhode Island 02896-6930

Please do so TODAY! Please do it now before you forget and place this magazine in your recycle bin.

Please remember that if you move, especially those of you who are still on active duty and you get reassigned, please keep me posted on your current address. Please send me an e-mail at xuanloc@aol.com if your address changes.

For all those planning to attend the reunion, fill out the registration form and mail it in as soon as possible. If you cannot attend, please use the absentee ballot elsewhere in this magazine and mail it in to me as well.

Thank you all for your cooperation.

May God bless you all and have blessed Lent and Easter Season and Passover for our Jewish brothers!

7th Infantry Regiment Association Chaplain

My fellow Cottonbalers—As I write this on 2 February, Punxsutawney Phil did not see his shadow which means we will have an early Spring. This phenomenon has not happened in many, many years. So, we celebrate that famous rodent and wait for the warmer weather and longer days to arrive. It has been a brutal winter for our brothers who live in the mid-west and the plains states.

Spiritually for Christians we are entering into the Lenten season which is a great time to reflect on our failings and shortcoming as we wait with eager anticipation the Paschal Feast of our Risen Lord Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday. God only knows we have all played a part great or small in not mending relationships with our family and friends and this season of penance and repentance offers each of us to celebrate reconciliation with our brothers and sisters around us.

Our nation is broken and more divided than we have seen since the days of the Vietnam War. We desperately need God's healing grace here in America so that we might remain a strong and unified nation that cares for each and every one of its citizens. No matter what side of the spectrum we see ourselves politically we must admit that we cannot move ahead in the work of peace and harmony when we are so divided. We need to allow the grace of God to move our hearts in the great work of healing one another and together, our nation.

On a cheerier note, we are preparing once again for our upcoming reunion in Chattanooga this summer. It is coming together very nicely so that we might renew old friendships and make new ones. We will get a taste of history as we visit some Civil War battle sites while enjoying southern hospitality. Please mark your calendars and make your hotel and travel arrangements soon and take advantage of the reasonable rates we have been able to negotiate. We thank our President Cullison and Past-President Jensen who have worked hard to make this a most pleasant and fun reunion.

During this reunion we will be electing new officers and a ballot is included in this magazine to be used by those unable to attend the reunion. So, fill those out and send them to me at:

Fr. Philip G. Salois, M.S., Assoc. Secretary
16 Sharon Parkway
North Smithfield RI 02896-6930

If you plan to attend the reunion do NOT send in your ballots as they will be available during the Membership Meeting to vote in person as we may have write-in candidates who desire to run for an office.

Have a blessed Lenten and Easter Season and Passover for our Jewish brothers!
